Treating the Whole Child: Integration of Home Visiting and Pediatric Medical Homes

Expert Biographies

Sally Baggett, Director of Parent and Family Support, Carolina Health Centers, Inc.
113 Liner Drive
Greenwood, South Carolina 29646
sbaggett@carolinahealthcenters.org
(864) 941.8105

Sally is the Director of Patient and Family Support at Carolina Health Centers, Inc., where she oversees the Center’s home visiting programs as well as the integration of home visiting within primary care. Sally also participates in the Home Visiting Collaborative Improvement and Innovation Network (HV CoIIN), which is supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) to improve practices addressing maternal depression.

Colleen Kraft, Medical Director, Health Network by Cincinnati Children’s Hospital Medical Center
333 Burnet Avenue
Cincinnati, Ohio 45229
colleen.kraft@cchmc.org
(513) 803.6806

Colleen A. Kraft, MD, is the Medical Director of Health Network, a community-based network of providers in and outside of the Cincinnati Children’s whose mission is to improve the system of healthcare for children in Cincinnati. Dr. Kraft was formerly a pediatric program director at the Virginia Tech Carilion School of Medicine and senior medical officer for MajestaCare, a Medicaid managed care organization in Virginia.

Dr. Kraft is the co-author of the book Managing Chronic Health Conditions in Child Care and Schools. She has been actively involved in pediatric engagement in school and child care for children with special health care needs. She has served on the Early Brain and Childhood Development workgroup, the Council on Community Pediatrics Executive Committee, and the National Medical Home Project Advisory Committee at the American Academy of Pediatrics. She is a content expert for Text4Baby and serves on the National Head Start Advisory Committee.

Katy Sides, Director of Research and Grants, Institute for Child Success
102 Edinburgh Court
Greenville, SC 29607
ksides@instituteforchildsuccess.org
(846) 467.4802
Katy Sides joined ICS as the Director of Research and Grants in September 2013 and took over as the Director of Operations and Grants in November 2014. She oversees the administration, finance and operations of ICS as well as writes and manages the Institute's grants portfolio. While over research, Katy led the Institute's work on kindergarten entry assessments and the creation of ICS's annual data report on the status of young children in the state of South Carolina. She previously worked for local governments in Georgia and South Carolina. Sides earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and Sociology from Furman University and her Master of Public Administration from the University of Georgia with a concentration in nonprofit management. Katy serves on several grant review committees in the community.